

Several years ago, when we considered winding down production, we realised that it would mean saying goodbye to an extraordinary chapter full of passion, imagination, and craftsmanship. We knew we would miss every aspect of our work. Throughout that period, however, our colleagues and collaborators, who had shared in our endeavours, continued to urge us to reconsider and not let that chapter end. Thanks to this, we have introduced the artistic and innovative characteristics of Italian design and manufacturing to the world, establishing one of the most important businesses in the international luxury-contemporary and classic style interior design sector.

WE'RE BACK. THE SAME. BUT DIFFERENT.

We have been setting the global standard for
Luxury style since 1972

We remain true to the values, knowledge and skills that have always set us apart. Founded fifty years ago, Arca has a long-standing history of relationships, beauty and creativity. The company developed in a region rich in tradition, craftsmanship and art. These values live on in our designs and products. They also live on in our new venture, where the world of Made in Italy creativity and quality finds full expression.

Luxury Interior Design emerges from the seamless harmony between living spaces and the tastes and personalities of those who live in them. A luxury project is the result of achieving the perfect balance between aesthetics and quality. It is brought to life with fine materials, craftsmanship and creativity, resulting in functional designs that have a timeless style. Whether Classic or Contemporary, luxury goes beyond mere living to offer an experience of living in a space that reflects our passions, emotions, and individuality.

From the outset, Arca has been recognised internationally in the luxury sector for its in-depth and practical expertise, relentless pursuit of material innovation and unwavering commitment to quality and selection. We are now back in our natural habitat. The same, but different.
